World Affairs Council Of Sonoma County

P.O. Box 1433, Santa Rosa, CA 95402

The World Affairs Council of Sonoma County is a non-profit, non-partisan, non-government organization that provides a forum offering different points of view, insights, understanding, and awareness of the world we share. Established in 1988, the Council offers its members an opportunity to become more informed on matters of national and international significance.

 Evening and Luncheon programs present recognized authorities from government and non-government organizations & academia who discuss foreign policy issues & other matters of international interest.

 Educational opportunities include the annual Foreign Policy Association's eight-week Great Decisions discussion groups programs.

 Members enjoy the social benefit of sharing and discussing common interests in world affairs at speaker meetings, the annual members' dinner and the annual picnic.

 Book Clubs, within the Council, are dedicated to a better understanding of international issues.

 "PERSPECTIVES" is the Council's quarterly newsletter distributed to all members. It includes information on current and future programs, as well as activities of the Council such as the Book Club and the Great Decisions discussion groups.
